Prioritizing projects has never been easier.

StationMate Project Files are a perfect solution for managing multiple projects simultaneously. The unique cascading design holds letter size files upright, and keeps the projects in the back of the unit as visible as those in front. Made from impact-resistant plastic, each compartment is 7" high and 1" deep allowing ample visibility and easy access to each file. Each Stationmate includes 25 translucent Pocket Files to make organization even easier. Choose from three StationMate models to suit your needs.

StationMate Desk File

StationMate Desk File features five 1" deep compartments that can organize up to 25 project files in less space than ordinary letter trays. This model is great for use at the office and at home. Use it to organize warranty information, school and medical information, bills, and important forms and receipts at tax time. Measures 13" w x 8³/₄" h x 10⁵/₈" d.
